

Strategic Consultancy
Daily rate or project fee
Start date October 2019

National Youth Ballet seeks an experienced all-round freelance manager / administrator / executive director in the performing arts to support the board in a fixed-term consultancy capacity to: explore the organisation's strategic aims, comprehensively re-assess our business model and staffing structure, identify new partnerships with which the organisation can grow and progress sustainably and further develop the business plan.

The project will start as soon as possible and the brief is currently phased. Phase 1 deliverables include, among others:

Phase 1 deliverables include, among others:

- proposals for monetising our activities (or new strands of activity)
- proposals for increasing reach / diversity / numbers of auditions
- proposal for staffing structure, including volunteers and succession planning where necessary
- comprehensive competitor analysis

Please click here to read the strategic consultancy brief in full. The deadline for responses is 9 a.m. Monday 9th September.