

Residential Performance Activities

NYB has been delivering work for almost 40 years.

Our Residential Performance Activities aim to inspire the next generation of dancers.

They aim to replicate what life is like in a professional ballet company.

The residences bring together young people from across the UK.

Participants take part in daily class and rehearsals.

	Participants take part in workshops with renowned teachers and choreographers.
	Participants also work with professional lighting, wardrobe, make-up, and technical teams.
	Each residential ends with performances at places like Elmhurst Ballet School and Sadler's Wells Theatre.
	Participants can also develop their creativity by taking part in a Choreographic Showcase.
	Participants develop performance skills, creativity and lifelong relationships.
